

WASHINGTON POST 6/29/07

Northern Virginia

Today

[CONCERT] A Little Russian Music to Get Your Feet Moving The Washington Balalaika Society's orchestra, a Russian folk troupe that has been playing a flurry of dates across Northern Virginia, performs tonight at Lake Accotink Park in Springfield as part of Fairfax County's summer entertainment series. The orchestra uses traditional Russian folk instruments, including the balalaika and domra. Free, 7:30 p.m., 7500 Accotink Park Rd., Springfield. Call 703-324-7469 for rain-cancellation information.

Monday

[CLOSING] artReston The League of Reston Artists' 14th annual juried show, in which local artists compete for $1,500 in awards, closes Monday at the Reston Community Center. Leslie Nolan won the JoAnn Rose Award

BY LESLIE NOLAN

This award-winning acrylic painting by Leslie Nolan is part of a Reston juried show on view through Monday.

for an untitled acrylic work. Free. Today and tomorrow, 10 a.m.-midnight, Sunday 1-9 p.m., Monday 10 a.m.-10 p.m. Jo Ann Rose Gallery, Reston Community Center Lake Anne, 1609-A Washington Plaza, 703-689-3550.

Wednesday

[FESTIVALS] Independence Day at Mount Vernon It makes sense that the home of Founding Father George Washington would be the scene of a big celebration (sans fireworks). But we've got to warn you that this event, a day-long celebration — which includes a reading of the Declaration of Independence, reenactors, a concert and birthday cake — isn't free (and many other Fourth of July festivities are). The price is the estate's regular admission, $13; seniors, $12; ages 6-13, $6; 5 and younger, free. 8 a.m.-5 p.m., 3200 Mount Vernon Memorial Hwy., Mount Vernon, 703-780-2000.